Purpose:

New Britain Emergency Medical Services, Inc. (NBEMSI) is committed to its core values of caring, excellence, service, teamwork, and community. These values are the foundation of our philosophy and are integral to every aspect of our agency. At the most fundamental level these values are representative of our commitment to managing equality, diversity, and inclusion effectively in all aspects of our business in a diverse community and organization.

Policy/Procedure:

It is the policy of New Britain Emergency Medical Services, Inc. to treat all people equitably; and not exclude, deny benefits to or otherwise discriminate against any person on the ground of race, color, gender, religion, national origin, disability, age, genetic information, gender identity, sexual orientation, veteran's status or any other basis protected by applicable federal, state or local law in admission to, participation in, or receipt of the services and benefits under any of its programs and activities, and in staff and employee assignments to patients. This policy includes but is not limited to staff, contractors, customers, students, and patients.

Any breach or alleged breach of this policy will be taken seriously, investigated fully and may result in corrective action. In serious cases, such behavior may constitute gross misconduct and result in termination.

The NBEMSI Board of Directors will monitor and review the effectiveness of this policy and associated procedures. NBEMSI and its Board of Directors is committed to enhance the organization's ability to help meet the needs of an increasingly diverse workforce and patient population.

Protection against Sex Discrimination

- Individuals will not be denied health care based on their sex, including their gender identity and sex stereotyping.
- Women will be treated equally with men in the health care they receive and the insurance they obtain.
- Individuals will be treated consistent with their gender identity.
- NBEMSI will not deny or limit treatment for any health services that are ordinarily or exclusively available to individuals of one gender based on the fact that a person seeking such services identifies as belonging to another gender.

Protections for individuals with Limited English Proficiency

NBEMSI will take reasonable steps to provide meaningful access to each individual with limited English proficiency.

- NBEMSI will provide language assistance service, when oral language assistance or written translation is not available.
- NBEMSI will post taglines in written information and on NBEMSI website at <http://www.nbems.org> and <http://www.nbemsa.org> with the top fifteen (15) languages spoken by individuals in the State of Connecticut with limited English proficiency and indicate the availability of language assistance.

The tagline will provide information that the language services, free of charge are available to them by calling _____, Client ID# _____8.

Protections for individuals with Disabilities

- NBEMSI will take steps to ensure communications with individuals with disabilities are appropriate and will provide necessary auxiliary aides and services in the form of alternative formats, sign language or interpreters.
- Any community program NBEMSI offers, when applicable, will provide it in electronic and information technology to be accessible to individuals with a disability.

Non-Discrimination Notice:

For the purposes of complying with the rules and regulations set forth and enforced by the Office for Civil Rights, NBEMSI will inform the public, patients, and employees that the agency does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, religion, national origin, disability, age, genetic information, gender identity, sexual orientation, veteran's status or any other basis protected by applicable federal, state or local law.

- NBEMSI will post a notice of nondiscrimination on their website at <http://www.nbems.org> as well as <http://www.nbemsa.org> of individuals' rights providing information about communication assistance with individuals with limited English proficiency, and regarding available information for individuals with a disability needing communication assistance.
- The notice will provide information regarding filing a grievance with NBEMSI and with the Office for Civil Rights.
- A copy of the notice will be left with the patient at the time of transport.
- A copy of the notice is available upon request.
- The notice will be included in the employee handbook and distributed during orientation; and;
- The notice will be posted in employee area and general public service areas.
